

Household Size Certification

2023-2024 Academic Year

Your 2023-2024 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) was selected for review in a process called verification. Federal regulations require Brown University to verify the information you and/or your parents reported on your FAFSA with the information reported on this Certification. If there are differences, we may be required to correct your FAFSA information. Failure to submit this information will prohibit your federal aid from disbursing to your student account.

Family Grid

Complete the grid below listing all people living in your custodial parent(s) household. Please review the following instructions carefully before completing this section of the application.

A. Household members, include:

- Yourself and the custodial parent(s) you live with (including stepparent, if applicable).
- Your parent(s) other children: Include other children of your custodial parent(s) living with you. Also, include children if they do not live with you, but your parent(s) will provide more than half of their financial support from July 1, 2023 through June 30, 2024.
- Other people if they currently live with you and your parent(s), and your parent(s) provide more than half of their financial support and will continue to do so from July 1, 2023 through June 30, 2024.

B. Educational Information / Number of students in college:

- The number of students attending a postsecondary institution can have a significant impact on the amount of aid a family is eligible to receive. For purposes of financial aid, “attend” equates to half-time attendance or greater in a degree or certificate granting program.
- Siblings who attend less than half-time will not be counted as “in college” for purposes of financial aid.
- Sibling Enrollment status will be verified each year in the fall.
- If you know of a change to a sibling enrollment status, please notify our office in writing. A change in sibling enrollment status will result in an adjustment to your financial aid award.
